MAKE-A-WISH®

20% Foundation

This season's charity is one that's near and dear to my heart. We will be raising money for my non-profit, the 20% Foundation, in conjuncture with "I'm too young for this!" and "Make-A-Wish Mid-Atlantic". The overall goal is raise money to bring young-professionals (18 – 35) afflicted with cancer in the Washington, DC area together to cope, reconcile and heal, both physically and mentally, in a setting that is conducive for our age group. Money raised will also go to granting the last wish of a young professional in the DC area as well as continuing to fund rare cancer research.

A personal aside, I would never have made my it through my battle against cancer if it were not for my loving family, friends, DC Liberty Kickball players and Charities that were with me every step of the way for 2+ years now. Thank-you for your continued kind generosity!!

Cheers,

FirstPlaceInYourFace

5'10", 160 lbs, athletic build. Grew up in the small town of Waterville, ME. Attended the University of Rhode Island where I majored in Biology and played on the soccer team. Member of the recent world champion OSC kickball team. I work for United Way to better communities around the country, and coach a U9 travel soccer team - adorable, right?

The Date:

I will pick you up and take you to Pentagon Row in Arlington where I will treat you to ice skating (skate rental included). The skating will be followed by a short walk to Maggie Moo's Ice Cream where you can choose from over 24 flavors for some sweets and company.

Jonathon Kopy, affectionately known by friends as Kopy, hails from the state of Michigan, drinks beer straight from the pitcher, has an unyielding affection for all things pirate, and can rock a bow tie like it's nobody's business. Though he may have to wrangle his competitive nature at times, he has a heart the size of Texas and old fashioned values to match, believing in family, friends, football and America.

Should you wisely choose to spend your hard-earned cash on a date with Jonathon, the two of you will spend a few fun-filled hours on an adventure: a scavenger hunt, chock full of activities, exploring our nation's capital and its gems.

Name:
Miguel De Castro

Team:
Armed & Hammered

Miguel De Castro.... first off, let's get rid of the elephant in the room, he isn't an illegal immigrant, despite insidious rumors otherwise. In fact, Miguel works for the Air Force. He says he works at the Pentagon. This has yet to be verified and all his close friends can tell you is that if he is working he is working a very short day. This is good news for all potential suitors as he has plenty of time for you!

He is looking for a lovely lady and/or gentlemen that loves all the things he does.. beer, dresses, sports and a good mani/pedi. If you haven't heard in the past, Miguel is open for anything! If you have had the good fortune of meeting Miguel prior to this auction you know that he is a really affable, gregarious guy. That is how Miguel is 100% of the time. His energy is boundless. This probably is a side effect of the large amounts of exercise coupled with the low number of work hours. The good news: it translates well in the bedroom. If you want a review of Miguel in bed all you need to do is ask one of the friends standing either to your right or left.

If they pretend like they don't know they are either lying or don't remember. It isn't a factor of lackluster performance. Contrary to popular belief size does matter and if you haven't noticed, Miguel is 6 foot 4... that's right he is basically a giant for the dc area! Oddly enough his two brothers are 6 9 and 6 10. One's a doctor and the other one is in special forces. This results in 2 strange effects. The first is a tall guy with a short complex. The second is, in case you hit it off with Miguel you can now be sure he has really great genes.

Miguel has a lot of things he plans on doing with you should you purchase him for the date auction. The first is boozing you up. He is going to take you some place real classy, either McFadden's, MadHatter or Dan's cafe. Feed you plenty of drinks. Then take you to a nice place after to relax, like his couch. Don't worry about his roommates. I'm talking about the couch in his bedroom. Don't be weirded out-that's where he keeps his x-box. Have fun!

Alice enjoys long walks on the beach, karaoke, Simon Cowell, and making fried chicken. Move over Emril, because Alice's cajun fried Chicken is probably one of the best things you will ever taste in your life. If you win the bid tonight, she promises to make it for you. As far as other interests are concerned, Alice is a great feline enthusiast. If success and money weren't an option, she would have a career as a 'Cat Trainer.' Alice has a very healthy obsession with Jay-Z and can recite lines from his autobiography- she also knows the Black album by heart. As for sports, Alice loves the LSU Tigers, but has no idea what a touchdown is. She is a fantastic dancer, and is the inventor of the move, "the angry cave woman," although it may take a few PBRs before she is willing to demonstrate. Alice has an absolutely incredible laugh, and you can usually hear her before you can see her.

As far as dislikes are concerned, Alice is not a big fan of technology. Her faux wood paneled alarm clock is from 1989, her RCA speakers from 1994, and she only recently crossed into Smartphone territory last month when to her horror, discovered that Verizon discontinued her flip phone model that she consistently replaced for 6 years. For a long time, Alice thought Royal Palace was a Chinese restaurant and never went there. Once she learned of the true nature of this establishment, she's become a loyal, albeit occasional, patron. She often frequents RP during natural disasters of the varying kind- hurricanes and snowstorms. Alice sometimes has dreams about picnicking with Magic Johnson. As a young girl, Alice wished Magic was her friend. Her favorite TV shows include Arrested Development, Toddlers in Tiaras, Extreme Couponing, and Dance Moms. In conclusion, she's quite a catch!

For her date: You will get to accompany Alice to her most favorite Gayborhood haunt, Larry's Lounge-- then off to wherever the night may take the two of you.

Never Nudes

All you need to know about Ben Husch can be summed up in one word: inquisitive. Known on the field for his ability to cut down runners at home, and off the field for his volunteer job with apple, where he berates anyone and everyone who doesn't own an Iphone, Ben will do almost anything for money - except eat vegetables.

When he isn't playing kickball on the cleanest and most pristine field in DC, this policy hunk is crunching numbers, watching game of thrones, or burying penalty kicks in the side netting. Ben originally hails from New Jersey, and before you ask the answer is no, he doesn't share John Boehner's skin tone, but yes, he does enjoy fist pumping. Ben has been in DC for a little over three years, currently calling Mt. Pleasant is home. As Ben's co-workers know well enough, he eats about 85 cupcakes a week. Thus, he proposes to take one of you lucky ladies on the ultimate cupcake tour of DC, hitting up the big names as well as those that are off the beaten path. And because breakfast should always be served , dinner at Ted's bulletin will cap off this amazing day.

Bri "Salty Wench" Riggio hails from beautiful and sensual Laguna Beach, California where she reveled in her youthful life (or lack thereof) of scandalous MTV glory. After living out her high school and college years in sunny SoCal at a rigorous liberals arts school known affectionately as Club Med College, she made her way East to see snow fall and to imbibe in all the happy hour and late night pleasures found in Washington, DC.

Miss Riggio spends her days at work as a Tea Partier's nightmare by doling out competitive government grants for international study and occupies her spare time by frolicking in pumpkin patches. Other interests include: drinking cheap red wine, enjoying cake-flavored frozen yogurts, driving Zipcars aimlessly around the Beltway at 2am on a weeknight, dancing on coffee tables to the songs of Lady Gaga, performing in improv shows, and penning the next great American novel.

Having earned a BA in history, as well as an honorary degree in beer drinking, Miss Riggio proposes taking one lucky auction winner to a beer history and tasting class, followed by dinner, dessert and excellent conversation.

Steph's Date:

Clearly, this date can't officially be a date, until there is coffee involved. Don't skimp on the caffeine gentleman. You will regret this decision later. Please make sure to bring the following on your date: running sneakers, champagne, a banana hammock, pop rocks, vodka, 3 credit cards, and your passport. Good Luck and God's Speed.

Hobbies:

Facts about Steph:

Don't underestimate her gentlemen, this fiery vixen is elegant as she is deadly. She has the charisma of a Vegas showgirl and a figure that would make the Pope himself reconsider his faith. Steph is in AA, but only for the free coffee so don't get her wrong, she loves to party. She has been known to party for literally weeks on end so if you can't keep up she will not slow down for you. If her energy were capable of being harnessed, it would have the ability to power all of the Western Hemisphere, stimulate the European and American economies indefinitely, and reverse global warming with just enough left over to heat the free coffee at her AA meetings. This multi-talented lady of the evening has all the right moves so she doesn't need someone to show her how it's done, but someone who can get it done with her. Game on.

Ben Kozy

Team:
Das Boot

Ladies, ladies, ladies... how do I begin to describe Mr. Kozy? Moving to DC just over a year ago, the roommate of our league's President has made his mark early. Once referred to as "Liberty's heart throb" and earning "Best lay" superlative honors last season, he prefers to think of himself as a guy who is just out to have a good time bending elbows with DC's hottest kickball league. A former NCAA track star at Annapolis, he didn't have the typical college years and is catching up on those missed times now. When he isn't shutting down batters on the kickball field or getting spanked in flip cup, Ben enjoys standard activities for DC's yuppies like finding new happy hours and cheering against the city's abysmal sports teams.

Whether his reputation speaks to it or not, this native of Texas is a gentleman at heart and, for the sake of charity and a great time, is looking to take one to three ladies on a date they won't soon forget. If a group of ladies pool their money and ultimately think they're too much for Ben to handle, he can probably coax his charity-loving roommate or yupster co-workers into aiding in the delivery of the highest quality date. Ben has passed along his vision of a day date to include kayaking the Potomac (or sledding in Rock Creek Park if our warm days are over), heading to Capitals game in Pittsburgh attire, cooking his famous chicken parm, and finally raging at the bars as is only fitting for a weekend night in DC.

This 23 year old Aquarius was born and raised in South Detroit. He enjoys eating his way cross-country and exploring new restaurants throughout the city. When he's not living it up on the town, Mark enjoys watching Top Gun complete with a big glass of Pinot Grigio. Not only does this man appreciate the finer things in life, but he has also been known to perform perfect renditions of "My Heart Will Go On". Some have ventured as far as to call him the "song bird of his generation".

If you aren't salivating yet ladies, wait until you see Mark on dance floor. He was once rated the #37 back-up dancer according to Dancespirit Magazine until a freak gasoline fight accident shattered his dreams of touring with Paula Abdul. If you think you're able to keep up with this Motor City Machismo then place your bids on Mark! I almost forgot he loves to smile. Smiling's his favorite.

For our date, we will be going skydiving, or going to grab drinks in dupont - depending on the livingsocial deal that week.

Rory is a fun-loving, crazy jersey devil-believing Segway tour guiding "lady". She enjoys nothing more than a bottle, I mean glass, of sparkling wine and a large jumbo slice at two in the morning. You can usually catch her wandering the museums or screaming at the sports channel at Philly.

If you want to have the best night on two wheels look no further. She will be taking you on a lovely Segway ride around the city including a picnic on the mall.

Ladies and Gentlemen (but preferably ladies), maybe I present to you, in this corner... weighing in at a full, robust 130 lbs; the man who will dance your pants off; the lover from largo station; the italian stallion.....Andeeeeeeeeee Feeesstaaaaaa!!!! And in the other corner... YOU! Ladies, gents, miscellaneous...and your money (for a good cause, of course). Be prepared to be awestruck by this toe twinkling, machismo oozing, wining, dining machine! This man would normally go for over $500... but in this special, one time only offer...you can get him while the bidding starts at only $40. And, for a limited time, he'll even throw in dessert (you decide what the desert will be, wink wink).

That's right ladies, he's better than the magic bullet, shamwow, & oxyclean... COMBINED!! He's the Chuck Norris of auction dates! He's got the cuddle factor of a snuggie with the energy of the shakeweight! Not only that, but he was actually born and bred in good ol'Toms River, NJ (yes, the town directly to the west of Seaside Heights, the location of MTV's Jersey Shore)! WHOA! In a recent, rare interview with HunKK Magazine, the sexy beast, Mr. Festa, answered a few choice questions for us:

Name:
Andy Festa

Team:
Rhythm & Booze

Hunkk Magazine: Tell me, what are some of your hobbies, Mr Festa?

AF: "Well, as with all Italian men from the Jersey shore, I enjoy cooking Italian food, tending to my herb garden, and fist pumping with the best of them."

Hunkk Magazine: Very cool, anything else? Personal life?

AF: "I play kickball for the flipcup. In fact, I like flipping stuff so much, you can see me flipping cups, pitchers, tables, and attractive women. I am a Swing dancer. I went to undergrad at the University of South Florida. Go Bulls! During my day job, I'm a project manager for the DoD, and am going to Grad School for my MBA.

Hunkk Magazine: Whoa! Tell me more about this kickball stuff you seem to love so much.

AF: "Well, in addition to rocking it on the mound for my team, Rhythm and Booze, i'm most known in the kickball community as being the GMOT editor for the DC Capital Division, and a moderator on the Kickball365.com message board. I currently live and own a house in Laurel, MD. Yes, that's outside the beltway. PG County wassup!"

Hunkk Magazine: NO way! You own your own house! Aren't you one sexy, independent, single man! What are your plans for this special date night?

AF: " Let's just say I'll rock some young lady's world, swing-dance style...if ya know what I mean. And what I mean is, I'm going to give you swing dance lessons...and if you're good, I'll buy you that dessert!"

If you bid on these sexy betches you will have THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE---and not just “Dirty Dancing.” On the date with these triflin’ hoes you will get a bottomless boobs---I mean BOOZE--- brunch.

They are looking for a man that knows a thing or two about a thing or two. Go on a date with both of these ladies if you are man enough, or split the bid and take them on a double date if people are starting to question your “bromance.”
